Re: Section 8 Program Manager leave of absence

Dear Community Partners and Program Participants,

David DeAngelis, Section 8 Program and Grants Manager, is on a leave of absence.

Brattleboro Housing Partnerships (BHP) recognizes the critical role and responsibility of the Section 8 Program and Grants Manager.

BHP has been actively developing a response to this unexpected absence. Several BHP staff members are assuming responsibility for the various areas of this position. A search has begun to add additional staff members to the BHP Occupancy Team to support the program.

All communication related to the program is being documented and triaged. Phone calls related to the Section 8 program should be sent to 802-246-1535. Emails related to the Section 8 program should be sent to ddeangelis@brattleborohousing.org. All other inquiries may be sent to the main BHP number at 802-254-6071. BHP will respond to communication within two business days.

David DeAngelis is admired at BHP and throughout our community for his knowledge, compassion, and professionalism. BHP appreciates your patience as we adjust and respond to this absence.

Sincerely,

Christine Hazzard

Executive Director
